Gentlemen having gotten two or three letters from you for which I owe you an apology for delaying so long in answering. Will not attempt to explain why there. The one with the 3 cent note of mine also another reminding me that I owe you a small balance. & the one with the rubbing of the slug all received. in one you asked what I thought about those proof sets. I cannot raise the mind for them yet. You said it partly wanted the 3 cent note I will return it to you if you wish. the slug I cannot take the reason can be easily guessed. Will sell the one I have at that price. what you want for yours. will square that &c shortly. Excuse this card.
am out from home & this is the handiest at present.
Got catalogue of your coming sale next proximo.

About two weeks ago I sent you @ a note for my indebtedness to you, dated May 2/92 which was my birthday, not having if received. have thought probably it had gone wrong. I also asked for prices if you had them of 1829-37 the 4 varieties & 49 old copper cents uncirculated. all I have of those dates are somewhat damaged. & I think I asked if you would tell me what lot-270 sold for in N. York at the Saltmarsh sale. on the 13th/14th alt. I hope the circlet got to you safe. even you were at Atlantic you said you had 10 for 1/2 cents. I don't recollect as you told me what you wanted for them. let me know sometime & perhaps you can bargain for them.

Mrs. J. H. & A. Chapman Gentlemen inclosed I send your bid sheet with a number of lots of the coming Sale in N. York on 6th ~~Proximo~~. to ask you to place what in your opinion will be winning bids to each lot as designated on bid sheet. & return to me so I can have something to govern my bids. You often advise me. & I feel at a loss how to bid, especially were the prices appear from the rating of the pieces to be very extra pieces. I don't want to send a bid that will appear a ridiculous one on a fine or uncirculated piece.
I will mark off what lots I decide not to bid on and return it to you or send you another bid sheet as I have one or more spare sheets. in your letter of 12th inst you say you have sent me a priced Catalogue of the King Sale @ 75 - that I have not got - but would like one if you have one to share. the one I got after days ago was of the Thos. Ramsden² Sale. of June 21st 22 last. I will take the 1856 nickle cent you speak of \$5.37 delivered - will not be able to take the proof sets yet, as to $\frac{1}{2}$ cents please state price & quantity.

You will remember I spoke to you as to quotation of gold dollars when one of your firms was here 2 weeks or so ago, when I got those 2 1856 cents from you. You I think said you did not recollect of quoting any price only that you had or could furnish all dates with 1849 to 1888 inclusive. in your letter of 6/18/92 are this (we have a fine stock of gold dollars @ $1.50 to $2.00 each 1849 to 1888 would you like prices & dates & do you want duplicates we have about 150 altogether) I have not you over to learn the dates of what I have. will let ^{you} know soon that is if I can put up the ducat for them. I feel the greatest interest in getting a nice lot of cents, fine & uncirculated. will send check for the 56 cents & friend Cat of Ramsden sale, also the Kings sale that is if you have one to send me. as no doubt you meant to say you had sent the one of the Ramsden sale. but - said the Kings sale, the King² sale is the one I want to get

Yours of 10/19/92 rec^d. the mistake is yours. you charge me with lot 40 @ 75 cents three pieces. that lot I admit. keep it was 3 pieces of 1851. lot 41 was also 1851 - 4 pieces @ 50 - those I kept - & lot 48 you have not charged me with they were 3 pieces of 1855 at 50^{cts} so you will see were the mistake is. the difference between 75^{cts} for lot 40 returned and lot 48 kept @ 50. no mistake of mine. will send package by tomorrow afternoon Express. the bill was $56.20 & only one piece Catalogue by adding the other as there were two @ 25^{cts} made ~~it~~ $56.95 - I returned pieces to amt to $25.60 sent you $31.35 - making $56.95 - you said nothing about having me charged with $4.85 for what only amounts to $4.10 in those last pieces you sent me. will return them with the statement - so you can see for yourself. you did not make any reply to another question I asked you. I will not renew it again but send package as above stated so you will get it if desired promptly. Saturday morning
